ABOUT ME

I'm a student at the University of Missouri and am set to graduate in May 2021. I'm pursuing a degree in Journalism with an emphasis in Television/Radio Producing, as well as a minor in Business. I currently work as a Producer at KOMU 8, Mid-Missouri's NBC affiliate, where I have worked in many capacities since 2018. I was a leader in producing our 2020 election coverage, as well as President Trump's visit to Walter Reed, while keeping Mid-Missouri informed on the COVID-19 pandemic from the start. I am also set to intern for CBS Sports this spring for the NCAA Tournament in Indianapolis.

EXPERIENCE

KOMU-TV (NBC Affiliate in Columbia, MO) 2018-2021

Currently:

Producer – Lead production for dayside and nightside half-hour newscasts. Write local, national, and breaking news that matters most to the Mid-Missouri audience. Make quick decisions to keep shows accurate and on time, while utilizing all technology available. Communicate with reporters, production assistants, and executive producer to maintain effective workflow.

Previously:

Production Assistant – Edit video for newscasts utilizing Premiere Pro, pull video from network and station archives, operate teleprompter for newscasts.

Digital Producer – Manage all station social media platforms: produce content, post and monitor local and national stories on Facebook and Twitter utilizing SocialNewsDesk.

Friday Night Fever Crew – Covered high school football every Friday night my freshman year as part of KOMU 8's weekly half-hour segment.

CBS Sports Remote Production

March 2021

Production Intern – Will assist with production duties for CBS Sports' production staff during the 2021 NCAA Tournament in Indianapolis. Will be part of a team that is on-site from start to finish, building the network's production operation to broadcast the tournament, which is the first of its kind being held in one location.
